

The CPT and BlueBox partners Residential Training Programme

Are you ready for the new HomeBuyer Report?

The last of the RICS' 'awareness raising' seminars was delivered in April in London. Jointly presented by BlueBox partners director Phil Parnham, over 1100 surveyors were introduced to the new product and given an insight into how condition ratings are allocated and the new style of report completed. No further RICS seminars or training are planned before the launch of the HBR in July of this year.

The CPT and BlueBox partners seminar programme—the HomeBuyer Report.

If you missed the RICS seminars, or if you want to develop a deeper understanding of this new approach to assessing and reporting condition, you still have time to book onto one of the CPT and BlueBox partners HomeBuyer Report seminars. The available dates are:

- Solihull 14th May
- Haydock 9th June
- Bristol 16th June
- London 25th June

The seminars are designed to develop your condition rating and report writing skills through 'learning by doing'. In the morning, the speakers will introduce the course material and in the afternoon the delegates will be split into groups and allocated realistic photographic case studies. Together they will be expected to decide on appropriate condition ratings and compose a suitable report.

What will the sessions include?

The morning session will include a talk by Ian Rock (author of The Victorian House Manual) who will review the current state of the residential market, illustrated by details of some fascinating and challenging cases with which Ian is involved.

Phil Parnham will follow with a review of the condition rating and report writing process and will lead the delegates through a busy afternoon of workshop activities.

Pre and post course resources

To help you get the best out of the day, learning resources will be available electronically before the course, including photographs from a 'virtual' house. After the course you will be able to download copies of all the presentational material.
